

Native American Youth 2016-2017 Idyllwild Arts Academy Scholarships

Scholarships are provided for Native American students of high school age with current tribal affiliation, financial need, and who would like to study in one of the seven arts majors – Visual Arts, Creative Writing, Dance, Theatre, Music, Film & Digital Media, and InterArts/Fashion Design.

The Idyllwild Arts Academy is a residential arts high school that offers pre-professional training in the arts and a strong academic program to a culturally diverse student body of gifted young artists from all over the world. Graduates from Idyllwild Arts Academy have gone on to exhibit in major galleries and museums, and to perform in renowned orchestras, professional dance troupes, Broadway touring companies, and numerous films and television shows, and more.

Our alumni go on to some of the very best schools. In music: USC Thornton School of Music, The Juilliard School, Oberlin Conservatory, Eastman School of Music, New England Conservatory, Curtis Institute of Music, Peabody Conservatory. In theatre and dance: Alvin Ailey School of Dance, NYU's Tisch School of the Arts, Carnegie Mellon University, Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama, DePaul University, Liverpool Institute of Performing Arts. In visual arts: School of the Chicago Art Institute, Boston Museum School, Parsons School of Design, Maryland Institute College of Art. In filmmaking: NYU, Columbia, USC, UCLA and Chapman University. In creative writing: Bard College, Emerson College and all the University of California campuses. In interdisciplinary arts: Hampshire College, Johnson Center, UCLA, UC Santa Barbara, Gallatin at NYU.

Students applying for the Academy should complete an application of admission which is available online at www.idyllwildarts.org, contacting admission@idyllwildarts.org or by calling the Admission office at 951-468-7223.

